AMUSEMENTS

LOCKLEAR'S FATAL PICTURE TODAY

A monument to the heroism of an American "scientist of the air" is "The Skywayman," Lieutenant Ormer Locklear's greatest picture, which will be the attraction at the Butler today. Ten per cent of all the profits of this picture throughout the country is to be given to the families of Locklear and his pilot, Lieutenant Elliott, by the Fox Film corporation. "The Skywayman" is said to prove what Locklear always held—namely, that his daring exploits above the clouds were not performed in bravado, but for the good of mankind. When he stepped from one plane to another thousands of feet above the earth it was to show that it could be done in emergency. Until he did it nobody believed the balance and stability of an airplane could be maintained while a man stood out on the wings. He performs this feat and others just as startling. It is the story of a young American pilot who, with his memory gone after crashing to earth in France, returns to America and finds himself injected into adventures as thrilling as any he had in France. No other airman, even among the great war aces, ever captured the world's admiration as Locklear did. His name will live, and "The Skywayman" will perpetuate it. Added to the program will be a Ford Educational Weekly and a Mutt and Jeff comedy.

Tomorrow, the last picture made by Olive Thomas, and the only one which has not already been shown at this theatre, "Everybody's Sweetheart" is coming Monday. Louise Glum is in "The Leopard Woman".

Coming Monday, Louise Glum in "The Leopard Woman".

TOGNETTI DIVORCE CASE HEARD TODAY

The Tognetti divorce case was heard in district court yesterday afternoon and is being resumed again this afternoon. The family lives in the eastern part of Nye county and owns considerable property in that section.

W. D. Horton is representing Mrs. Tognetti, who brought the suit, and A. J. Litch of Ely is appearing for the defendant. At yesterday's hearing Jurich made sensational charges against Mrs. Tognetti.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC FINED

The suit brought by an employee against the Southern Pacific for failure to pay within the time allowed by law, resulted in a fine of $150 to the railroad company at Sparks.

Whether this feature of the employment law will be taken to the higher courts remains to be seen. Should the railroad people bring the matter upon appeal it will test the constitutionality of the employment liability act.

JAPS DEPLORE FIERY SPEECHES

(Correspondence of Associated Press)

TOKIO, Oct. 17.—Over 30 Japanese journalists of the Tokio press who have formerly resided in the United States met in Tokio and passed a resolution concerning the Japanese question in California.

After pointing out that the signers are familiar with conditions obtaining in the United States, the resolution says: "We absolutely despise those extreme speeches and writings about the California problem on either side of the Pacific. The main point of the question pending between Japan and the United States at present is nothing but the discriminatory treatment given to Japanese subjects residing in a small section of the United States, and we must appeal to the fair judgment and the profound sense of justice possessed by the American people throughout the United States concerning discriminatory treatment of Japanese subjects manifested in the legislation in California. We do not believe that the American nation as a whole and the judicial authorities of the United States will take unreasonable and unjust measures toward Japanese subjects who are lawful residents in a state which is within the jurisdiction of and under the control of the judiciary of the United States."
